

IN AND ABOUT ATLANTA.

HAPPENINGS ABOUT THE CITY OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Y. M. C. A. Directors Meet.—The day at the City Hall—Other Points of Interest.

It was a bright, cheerful day which burned in the grate in Mayor Glenn's office all day long yesterday.

And many an Atlantian warmed by the fire.

During the hours Mayor Glenn gave to the city, his office was almost constantly crowded. Many were his warm personal friends who called to congratulate him and to see how he was his honors. Others were gentlemen who had business.

Hon. John T. Cooper, ex-mayor, dropped in about 2 o'clock and qualified as a member of the board of health. He accepted an easy chair beside Mayor Glenn, and for an hour the two gentlemen conversed in an informal, pleasant manner.

One was dropping pointers and the other was picking them up.

During the day the mayor dictated two very important letters to his secretary. One was to Senator Colquitt and the other to Congressman Stewart. Both letters related to the same subject. In them, Mayor Glenn urged the gentlemen to push the appropriation for the military barracks near the city.

"I think," said the mayor, after the latter had been written, "that is a very important subject. Don't you?"

Late in the afternoon the members of the board of police commission met in an office for a conference with the mayor. Hon. J. W. English, chairman, Messrs. Brown, Brotherton, Stephens, Martin, were present. The gentlemen discussed the condition of the police force, and in the mayor had an attentive listener. The conference lasted some time, and resulted in a thorough understanding between the chief executive and the board.

The mayor is now making a careful study of the water question.

OTHER PARTS OF THE CITY HALL.

M. Maloney, commissioner of public works, is busy just now tearing up a Forsyth street sewer to find where it is choked.

Chief Goldsmith don't know what to do with all the papers he has on hand. There are many bundles and the bundles are big. Mr. Morris, chairman of the printing committee, will call this morning and arrange for the printing.

Marshall Lloyd is having a time with his fa-tax collector Griffin and his assistants, Messrs. Malone, Meador and Keith, are fast becoming fine conversationalists. They have nothing to do now but talk.

In the engineer's office everything is quiet.

THE Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS.

A Meeting of Importance Held Yesterday.

The Finance.

Yesterday afternoon called meeting of the trustees of the Young Men's Christian association was held at the Y. M. C. A. building.

There were present Messrs. Henry Hillier, A. D. Adair, H. H. Hill, Jr., James W. English, W. A. Haygood, M. C. Kizer and W. A. Hemphill, and several directors of the association.

Mr. Henry Hillier, vice-president of the board of trustees, was called to the chair.

Mr. Licklider, the secretary of the association, stated that the meeting had been called to consider the financial status of the Young Men's Christian association, and to render in reference to the finishing and furnishing of the building.

The affairs of the association were talked over in an informal way, and the fact was developed that about $12,000 in unpaid subscriptions are still outstanding.

Mr. Hill moved that the finance committee be instructed to ascertain the exact status of the financial affairs of the association and submit a report.

The amendment was accepted and the motion was adopted.

Messrs. Henry Hillier, A. D. Adair and Mr. Kizer composed the finance committee.

Mr. Hill, then moved that a joint committee of three from the board of trustees and three from the board of directors be appointed to confer in reference to the right and duties of the association—said committee to report at the Monday night meeting.

The motion passed.

Messrs. Hill, Haygood and Kizer were appointed on the part of the trustees.

Immediately after the adjournment of the board of trustees, a quorum of the board of directors met, with Mr. George Muse in the chair.

On motion of Mr. William Nutting a committee composed of Messrs. George Muse, W. A. Hemphill and B. B. Crew was appointed on the joint conference committee from the board of directors.

The directors have been invited to meet with the trustees next Monday night, and interesting developments may be looked for.

SHOT IN THE DARK.

A Little Boy on His Way Home From a Party Shot Through the Leg.

Yesterday morning, between 12 and 1 o'clock, a little boy named Pelt Knox was shot on Haynes street.

It seems that he, in company with a number of little boys and girls, was returning from a party on Haynes street. There are parts of the street where the crowd are far between and the shadows heavy. As the crowd were going through one of these places a pistol shot was heard, and little Pelt Knox, in the rear of the party, cried out that he was shot.

Examination showed that he was shot through the leg, below the knee, and unable to walk home. A hack was called and he was carried home, where the wound was dressed. The wound is a painful, though not a serious one. There is no clew whatever as to who did the shooting.

KICKED BY A MULE.

Howard Harper, an Old Colored Man, Thought to be Fatally Injured.

Yesterday afternoon Howard Harper, an honest and industrious old colored man, was kicked by a vicious mule, and is thought to be fatally injured.

Harper was engaged in hauling for Jake McKinley, and was kicked while changing his mules.

He was struck just about the center of the forehead, the skull being crushed in. There is a gash across the forehead, about half an inch wide, and through this the brain was plainly visible.

The old lady was carried to his home, on Love street, and the doctor said he might possibly live until midnight, but no longer.

A DOZEN GET AWAY.

Twelve Convicts Over a Guard Near Covington and Took to the Woods.

Yesterday morning the farm of Mr. W. D. Lee, near Covington, was the scene of a sensation.

Mr. Lee has about twenty-five convicts which he works upon his farm.

Twelve of these men, in charge of one guard, were engaged in clearing a piece of woodland about a mile from Covington.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock yesterday morning the twelve convicts, in a body, overpowered the guard and, after capturing his gun, fled through the woods.

At last account none of them had been caught, though a large posse was in pursuit.

TWO LITTLE STORIES.

Picked Up in the Corridors of the Custom House.

Deputy Collector Colquitt and Deputy Marshal Johnson and Disinuke have returned from a successful hunt for illicit distillers in Georgia and Alabama. They got five moonshiners and destroyed three stills.

Near one of these stills a sly moonshiner was hidden in an old chestnut stump. Deputy Colquitt proceeded to demolish the still when the man straightened himself up in the stump and resting his gun on the rim, drew a bead on the deputy. But Johnson was too quick for him. "Come out of that," "Don't shoot," he yelled, when the moonshiner sprang out of the stump and took to his heels. He ran so well that the boys failed to catch him.

Revenue Agent Chapman and Deputy Marshal Scott seized and destroyed a still, the property of Lewis Shaw, in Henry county. Locust Grove the officers met a man who had been extremely friendly to one of them. This man asked them to put their horses in his stable, but afterwards discovered that they were revenue men and refused to entertain them.

MILITARY ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Atlanta C. M. & W. Will Entertain the Detroit Light Infantry in February.

Atlanta is to have two big military entertainments.

They will each eclipse anything of a similar nature ever held in the south.

The representatives of all the Atlanta companies met at the Gate City Guard's armory last evening to discuss plans for the entertainment.

There were present Captain John Millidge, of the Governor's Horse Guard; Captain A. C. Sneed, Atlanta City Guard; Captain J. B. Hollis, Atlanta Zouaves; Captain George H. Forbes, Atlanta Artillery; Lieutenant Howard Ellis, Gate City Guard.

Captain Millidge was called to the chair, and Captain Forbes was requested to act as secretary.

Captain Sneed addressed the meeting, stating that its object was to discuss the project of entertaining the Detroit Light Infantry on its tour south next month.

This company is one of the finest military organizations in the country, and along with it will come many friends of wealth and influence, who will embrace that opportunity of making a tour of the city and its environs.

They will be entertained by various clubs on the trip, and the military of Atlanta desire to give the company an entertainment here as well as give them an idea of the fine business advantages and social status of Georgia's wonderful and progressive capital.

The military companies feel assured that once the movement is started, there will be no trouble in carrying it through in a style that will reflect credit on the city and its military and civil organizations.

All of the gentlemen present endorsed Captain Sneed's views most enthusiastically, and the following resolutions were moved and carried unanimously:

1. That we have a parade on the day that the Detroit Light Infantry will be in the city about the middle of February next.

2. That we entertain the Detroit Light Infantry, at night, with a banquet and ball, if proper means can be obtained, and a number of excursions will be with the company, we request the Manufacturers' association to join the city in their efforts to give up an entertainment that will show up Atlanta's social features and business resources to the best advantage.

On motion a committee of three, consisting of Captains Millidge, Hall and Forbes was appointed to confer with the Manufacturers' association as to this entertainment.

The question of having a grand interstate prize drill was then discussed, and it was unanimously decided to get one up during the spring, or at the dedication of the capitol.

It was decided to begin the series of plans to insure the success of the drill at once, and if the military companies receive the Young Men's Christian association and to render in reference to the finishing and furnishing of the building.

The affairs of the association were talked over in an informal way, and the fact was developed that about $12,000 in unpaid subscriptions are still outstanding.

Mr. Hill moved that the finance committee be instructed to ascertain the exact status of the financial affairs of the association and submit a report.

IN SOCIETY'S DOMAIN.

THE ELEGANT RECEPTION AT MRS. LOWE'S HOME.

A Brilliant Society Event in One of Atlanta's Most Beautiful Homes—The Guests Who Were Present.

A royal entertainment was that given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lowe at their palatial mansion on Peachtree. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated with electric light, and the house, had created a glowing glow through rose-colored shades. An electric rainbow light in the large entrance hall shed its beautiful light over the rich furniture and hangings, lending to the whole scene a most exquisite effect.

Mrs. Lowe has displayed artistic and exquisite taste in the furnishing of her home, and the result is perfection. Her beautiful home never looked better than last evening when full of lovely women and handsome men.

No arrangement could have been handsomer than the parlor with its rich hangings of blue and gold plush, its massive, French style, electric cut crystal chandeliers. A richly carved silver lamp on a silver pedestal ornamented one corner, and shed its soft light through a large sea-green globe covered with delicate and intricate designs.

Upon this floor there was little floral decoration and the most delicate of the handsome paintings and hangings would have been lost.

All the rooms, save the most elegant drawing room and the library, were covered with crash and velvet. The large drawing room had a mahogany floor, and the walls were covered with velvet. The punch was served in a small room opening into this. The superb punch bowl was of rare silver and the handsome glass cups were of fine crystal.

A tall bronze lamp with five branches gave its light through rose colored globes in the parlor, and the foot of the bed in the library was covered with velvet. The large drawing room had a mahogany floor, and the walls were covered with velvet. The punch was served in a small room opening into this. The superb punch bowl was of rare silver and the handsome glass cups were of fine crystal.

The large drawing room was a triumph of artistic decoration. The walls were adorned with palm trees, the ceiling with a grand, intricate design, and the floor with a pattern of palm leaves.
